

Bob Schick
Director of Safety & Risk Management
TAC Air

Aircraft Operators & Ground Handling Safety

NATA Safety 1st Program

Industry Standard in Ground Handling Training

NATA Safety 1st

Programs

- Professional Line Service Training (PLST)
- FAA Accepted 14CFR139.321 Supervisory Training
- 18 Health & Safety Courses
- General & Business Aviation De-Icing Training
- Hazmat Awareness
- Regulated Garbage Handling

NATA Safety 1st

Ground Handling Operational & Safety Components

- Introduction to General Aviation
- Ramp and Aircraft Servicing Safety
- General Fuel Servicing
- Aircraft Towing
- Fuel Farm Management
- Customer Service
- Fire Safety
- General Aviation Security

NATA Safety 1st

Hybrid Learning Environment

- Online Training Modules
 - Written Exams
- Hands-on Training Requirements
- Practical Examination Requirements
- Resources for On-Site Trainers

2017 NATA Ground Handling Safety Symposium

Key Issues Discussed

- Need for collaborative approach to industry wide data analysis
- Expansion of SMS through IS-BAH and NATA programs
- Increased communications with aircraft operators
- Human Resources role in safety culture development & maintenance

Safety 1st & IS-BAH

Complementary NOT Competitive

