HAVE YOU HEARD?

NBAA is launching a Mentoring Network in 2018! We’re looking for qualified industry veterans and rising stars to be a part of the initial class of mentors and mentees that will help foster a collaborative environment for professional growth. Participants will be matched based on location, industry objectives and other factors to provide an engaging and fulfilling experience.

LEARN MORE: www.nbaa.org/mentoring
DEVELOP YOUR LEADERSHIP SKILLS
Becoming a mentor can help you improve on ways to motivate, inspire and encourage others which will in turn help you become a better manager and team member.

LEARN NEW PERSPECTIVES
Learn from your mentee’s experience and expectations. By working with future leaders, you can gain a new perspective of the business aviation industry that you may not be able to get anywhere else.

GAIN PERSONAL SATISFACTION
This is the perfect opportunity to give back to the business aviation industry. You’ll be able to help shape a young professional’s journey into business aviation. There’s no better feeling than knowing your direct influence helped shape someone’s career.

BUILD RELATIONSHIPS
Working with a mentor can improve relationship management skills by developing a trusting, professional relationship where you can openly and confidently share challenges and successes while building an influential network of support within the industry.

GAIN INDUSTRY AWARENESS
Develop a better understanding of the industry culture so you can assess your style and adapt more appropriately, make better decisions, develop greater confidence and gain a third-party, nonjudgmental perspective.

GAIN AN EDGE IN YOUR CURRENT POSITION
Learn new techniques and information that will help you get ahead in your career while also opening doors for new opportunities in the future.