WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This conference showcases tax planning strategies from industry leaders and is beneficial for anyone with responsibility for tax planning within the flight department – not just tax or finance professionals. Participants include, attorneys, CPAs, financial advisors, CFOs, tax and aviation directors, schedulers/dispatchers, and flight operations professionals.

SESSION TOPICS INCLUDE:

- » Navigating FAA Regulations and Operating Structures (Part 91 vs 135)
- » Latest Implications of Tax Reform, including Bonus Depreciation & Business Entertainment Expenses
- » Non-Business Use of Corporate Aircraft & Related Tax Implications
- » Managing Aviation Risk: From Illegal Charter to Insurance Trends
- » Looking Forward: Regulating Emerging Aviation Models
- » State Taxes: Applications, Exemptions & What's New

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Attending this conference gives you the opportunity to obtain valuable professional development credits:

» 14 hours of CPE credits in accordance with the standards of the National Registry of CPE Sponsors

» CLE credit for a maximum of 14 credits

» 1 CAM credential toward CAM application or renewal
