BENEFITS OF BEING A MENTOR

DEVELOP YOUR LEADERSHIP SKILLS

Becoming a mentor can help you improve on ways to motivate, inspire and encourage others which will in turn help you become a better manager and team member.

LEARN NEW PERSPECTIVES

Learn from your mentee's experience and expectations. By working with future leaders, you can gain a new perspective of the business aviation industry that you may not be able to get anywhere else.

GAIN PERSONAL SATISFACTION

This is the perfect opportunity to give back to the business aviation industry. You'll be able to help shape a young professional's journey into business aviation. There's no better feeling than knowing your direct influence helped shape someone's career.

BENEFITS OF BEING A MENTEE

GAIN INDUSTRY AWARENESS

Develop a better understanding of the industry culture so you can assess your style and adapt more appropriately, make better decisions, develop greater confidence and gain a third-party, nonjudgmental perspective.

BUILD RELATIONSHIPS

Working with a mentor can improve relationship management skills by developing a trusting, professional relationship where you can openly and confidently share challenges and successes while building an influential network of support within the industry.

GAIN AN EDGE IN YOUR CURRENT POSITION

Learn new techniques and information that will help you get ahead in your career while also opening doors for new opportunities in the future.
